Coming Up:

- ~ May Day 5/1
- ~ Mother's Day 5/11
- ~ Board Meeting 5/15
- ~ Center Closed 5/26 for
Memorial Day

A Note From the President of the Board:

Welcome to May everybody. I love this time of year, watching the world come back to life, the Sandhill Cranes returning as well as all the other migratory birds. The sky comes alive with all the activity. And then there are the snow birds. Welcome back to all of you. You have missed so much at the center, but I won't go into all that. This month we have some fun activities as well as the usual Bingo, game days, knitting and sewing. It just never seems to end.

This month we celebrate Mother's Day. Bless all the mothers out there, whether you are a biological mother or an adopted one, you are to be honored. There will be some special recognition for Mothers at the center. Please come and enjoy the activities.

May is also the first full month of service for our newest board member, Dan Miller. Lynn Harding resigned from the board on April 16 for personal reasons. When a board member resigns during their term, it is the board's responsibility to appoint a board member to serve in their place until the next election. Dan has been a member of the senior center since December of 2021 and was appointed to the board at the April 17, 2025 board meeting. He will serve until the annual meeting (August 12th) when, if he chooses, will be placed on the ballot, along with anyone else who chooses to run this year. There will be 3 board seats up for election. Let the office know if you are interested in running. Thank you for volunteering your time and talent for the board Dan, we're glad to have you!

May is also the month in which Memorial Day is observed. This year, Memorial Day is on May 26th. On that day, take a moment and remember our military men and women who died while serving. You are not forgotten! Thank you for your service.

Oh! Special note; this month is our second annual Gun Show, which is scheduled for May 31 and June 1 this year. Coinciding with the gun show, we have an awesome raffle going on this year. For just $20 a ticket you will have the chance to win three different fire arms. There are only 400 tickets being sold and the drawing will be on June 1 at 1:00 pm.

Lunches continue to be wonderful. Please thank Casey, Niki, and Rick when you get a chance. They are doing a great job.

All for now. Enjoy your spring and may God Bless you.

~ Dick Hawkins, President

A Note from the Executive Director:

May is here! Soon it will be time for flowers to appear and gardens to be planted! Reminder to those interested in tapping into your green thumb abilities.....now is the time to reserve your raised planter and/or garden spot in the community garden. If you're interested in a raised planter, they are 8' x 4' and sit 2' off the ground. Much easier to work in them than on the ground. If you'd rather have a garden plot and plant directly in the ground, they are 8' x 8'. Please let the office know if you're interested.

May also brings Mother's Day. Whether you are a mother, grandmother, or stand-in mother – this month celebrates you! Some of my most important lessons in life were taught to me by my mother. At the time, those lessons may not have been what I was looking for or expecting, but I'm sure glad she took the time to teach me anyway! My mom was special as are all moms. Although it's not always the easiest job, thank you to my mother and to all the mothers everywhere who have held the highly esteemed role of "mom" in someone's life! You're the best!!!

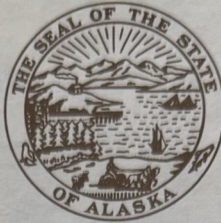

May will be a busy month at the senior center. Snowbirds are coming back, the gazebo is opening for the season on May 1, and our second annual gun show is coming up on May 31 / June 1. Stop by the center that weekend and check it out! If you're looking for volunteer opportunities, this summer has lots of them! Please let the office know if you're interested.

MAY DUGOUT NEWS

Baseball is well on its way and my beloved CUBS are smashing records (as of this writing) I recently went back to Iowa and my sister and I went through some of Mom's papers. I found this in her things and thought I'd share it with you.

WISDOM

As I was lying around, pondering the problems of the world. I realized that at my age I don't really give a rat's ass anymore. If walking is good for your health, the post person would be immortal. A whale swims all day, mainly eats fish, drinks water, but is still fat. A rabbit runs and hops and only lives 15 years, while a tortoise doesn't run and does mostly nothing, yet it lives for 150 years. AND YOU TELL ME TO EXERCISE?? I DON'T THINK SO.

Just grant me the senility to forget the people I never liked, the good fortune to remember the ones I do, and the eyesight to tell the difference.

NOW THAT I'M OLDER HERE'S WHAT I'VE DISCOVERED:

I started out with nothing, and I still have most of it.
My wild oats are mostly enjoyed with prunes and all-bran.
I finally got my head together, and now my body is falling apart.
Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.
Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.
If all is not lost, then where the heck is it?
It was a whole lot easier to get older, than to get wiser.
Some days, you're the top dog: some days you're the hydrant.
I wish the buck really did stop here; I sure could use a few of them.
Kids in the back seat cause accidents.
Accidents in the back seat cause kids.
It's hard to make a comeback when you haven't been anywhere.
The world only beats a path to your door when you're in the bathroom.
If God wanted me to touch my toes, he'd have put them on my knees.
When I'm finally holding all the right cards, everyone wants to play chess.
It's not hard to meet expenses...they're everywhere.
The only difference between a rut and a grave is the depth.
These days, I spend a lot of time thinking about the hereafter...I go somewhere to get something, and then wonder what I'm here after.
Funny, I don't remember being absent-minded.
Have I sent this out before?
I hope you realize that by me posting this, you are among the people we all want to remember!!

To all the MOM'S out there and looking down on us

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!
YOU ARE LOVED AND MISSED!!

Keep swinging for the fences! Cheryl

What is identity theft, and what are its warning signs?

Identity theft happens when someone uses your personal or financial information without your permission. This information can include:

- Names and addresses
- Credit card or Social Security numbers
- Bank account numbers
- Medical insurance account numbers

You may not know that you experienced ID theft immediately. Beware of these warning signs:

- Bills for items you did not buy
- Debt collection calls for accounts you did not open
- Information on your credit report for accounts you did not open
- Denials of loan applications
- Mail stops coming to or is missing from your mailbox

How to report identity theft

To report identity theft, contact:

- The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) online at IdentityTheft.gov or call 1-877-438-4338
- The three major credit reporting agencies. Ask them to place fraud alerts and a credit freeze on your accounts.
- The fraud department at your credit card issuers, bank, and other places where you have accounts
  - Use IdentityTheft.gov's list of steps to help you recover.
  - If you believe you have experienced tax-related identity theft but have not received a notification from the IRS about it, learn about filing Form 14039. Completing the Identity Theft Affidavit will invalidate a fraudulent return filed using your information.

How to protect yourself from identity theft

- Do not answer phone calls, texts, social media messages, or email from numbers or people you do not know.
- Do not share personal information like your bank account number, Social Security number, or date of birth.
- Collect your mail every day, and place a hold on your mail when you will be on vacation or away from your home.
- Review credit card and bank account statements. Watch for and report unauthorized or suspicious transactions.
- Understand how ATM skimming works and how to protect yourself.
- Learn when it is safe to use a public Wi-Fi network.
- Store personal information, including your Social Security card, in a safe place. Do not carry it in your wallet.
